Some things are very difficult to find.

And in order to find them you may need to be proactive.

'No win, no fee,' is a perfectly reasonable option some of the time and can be successful in resourcing candidates.

However, sometimes you need a consultancy to fight your corner ahead of other firms, find people that aren't actively looking to move positions and to be creative when the obvious has not worked.

There are numerous options for 'No win, no fee' recruitment (and we're one of them). But when it comes to a bespoke client-led recruitment effort driven by a Search campaign there are very few recruitment firms who have experience in this area within IP.

Pete Fellows has recruited search assignments at all levels in IP but also within the legal sector, the accountancy sector and across international borders.

If what you are doing is not working and you need a cost effective alternative solution to find candidates more proactively, then we can help. We always outline the risks and chance of success of a particular assignment and will work with you to best sell your firm to prospective candidates.
