Reach your career summit at Mathys & Squire.

Become a strategist, advisor and advocate for top ten biotechnology companies around the world. You will be joining a practice with a stellar reputation and a refreshing dynamic approach. You will be responsible for shaping and implementing your clients' IP programmes across Europe and will enjoy significant opposition and litigation, strategic prosecution, and high value due diligence.

The practice operates a working environment in which influence originates at all levels and where those who achieve will be well rewarded. There is demonstrable career progression through to partnership and access to some of the best clients and attorneys around. This is an opportunity not to be missed for those with the ambition and drive to excel.

Applicants should have a technical background in biochemistry or biotechnology and preferably be qualified in the UK and/or Europe. Ambitious candidates at finalist level will also be considered.
