

To give them a good laugh, we've just told them about the other IP recruiters.

Featured Positions

In-House, Electronics, Europe/UK

Leading global corporations require a European and/or UK qualified Patent Attorney to be part of their strategic IP team. You will be willing to relocate internationally, have a technical background in electronics, ideally with a focus on telecommunications and considerable experience of working with the European Patent Office. Ideally you will have international experience and have previously worked in a corporate environment although attorneys from private practice may also be considered. You will have an excellent academic track record and the ability to provide wide ranging consultative advice.

Electronics Newly Qualified, London

With significant new hires over the last year due to a substantial increase in work irrespective of the recession, an exhilarating role exists for a newly qualified attorney to join this leading private practice. They have a foundation of sound commercial sense coupled with a fun cooperative environment and a diverse, interesting work load. They will support you to become a fully rounded attorney with genuine partnership potential by exposing you to business development, consultancy and a control over your choice of clients. Given the international flavour to their work you will also have the opportunity to build a global network of contacts.

Other Opportunities

Electronics, Qualified, Yorkshire

Not the position that everyone else has been advertising – something entirely different. Why? This private practice has a work load to give you. They have some really impressive clients and they wish to invest heavily in this office to ensure its success. That means partnership for you in the not too distant future.

Electronics, Part Qualified Yorkshire

Excellent training. Well renowned colleagues. Opportunities for growth and development in a way that suits you. Clients that are global, important, cutting edge and highly regarded. Early exposure to working closely with clients and support to build a future client base of your own.

Electronics Qualified, London

Work within a rapidly expanding Electronics department in a firm with a social, cooperative and commercial outlook. Their client list is simply fantastic; they don't rely too heavily on agency work and can offer super career progression and tremendously interesting work. They pay well too.

Electronics, Part Qualified, London

A fantastic firm with a superb reputation. The practice is innovative, forward thinking and commercially aware. They offer an enlightened approach to training and hence surely that you will gain the experience you need to qualify. Once you do the career potential is tremendously exciting.

Life Sciences, Partner/Partner Designate, Scotland

With collective responsibility for building an even higher profile in Scotland, be part of the leadership of this biotechnology practice. The firm has a strong platform for increased success and can offer well considered career planning. Perhaps an opportunity to relocate to Scotland and benefit from an underdeveloped market full of possibilities?

Electronics, Qualified, Scotland

Growing Scottish practice that has begun to make a name for itself across the region. If you work for one of the old boys perhaps its time to give a new contender your time? With the plans for expansion in place this could be the chance to prove your worth as a strategist and be a key player in the growth of a business that has something very different to offer the Scottish market.

Trade Mark Partner with Following, London

Bring your clients to a well established firm with the desire to expand its trademark practice via quick expansion. With the commercial need for more Partners and a commercial strategy that will enable your successes this firm is a real prospect for attorneys stilled in their current environment. Client following does not need to be huge, anything in the region of £100k+ will be considered.

Qualified Trade Mark Attorney, Leading London Law Firm

Lead the development of a trade mark prosecution department for a firm with a well established IP team that is branching out. You can shape the department to some extent in your own image and will be given the license to make strategic decisions for the betterment of the firm. Given the importance of this hire you can make a real splash in the IP community as a whole.

Biotechnology, Qualified, London

Biotechnology practice that has enjoyed tremendous success even during the dark days of 2009. Their achievements have been built on sound business principles, an excellent list of clients and a leadership team that is keen to develop the abilities of all of its Fee Earners. The firm has a considerable reputation and could massively further your career.

Trade Mark Attorney, Established Prosecution Dept., London Law Firm

Join a law firm with a very successful trade mark prosecution department. Due to a change in circumstances they need an additional attorney who can hit the ground running and work with their impressive list of clients. Be part of a department of strategic importance to the firm and as part of a highly successful intellectual property team benefit from new experiences beyond the trade mark profession.

Seriously, there really is only one choice. Visit www.fellowsandassociates.com to see why.
+ Read our Review of the IP Market in the News Section of our website.

For more information or to apply to any of these roles please email: contact@fellowsandassociates.com or phone 020 7903 5019.

Join our Group on LinkedIn! Visit: www.linkedininfellows.com.

